The Lengthsman had been working in Headon. Next week the Lengthsman will be working in Upton. The Parish Council has for the third year running contacted Nottinghamshire CC asking that the Parish Council be allowed to join the as advertised Lengthsman scheme. Nottinghamshire CC had replied stating that the Lengthsman scheme is not open at this time. The Parish Council has asked for details as to how to appeal against this decision.

Cllr Harvey contacted Mr. Will Wilson, Bassetlaw District Council who confirmed that the current Neighborhood Plan for the parish remains in force until 2035. Cllr Harvey will arrange to meet Will Wilson sometime in the future to discuss the Neighborhood Plan.

Grove War Memorial handrail, the Clerk to write a specification for the handrail, contact suitably competent contractors, obtain quotations for the works and then submit a grant funding bid to Nottinghamshire CC. Cllr Harvey thanked Cllr Ogle for his written support of the proposed handrail grant application. The Parish Council has contacted Nottinghamshire County Council asking for the grant funding for the new noticeboard replacements to be released to Parish Council.

Have you seen the four new Parish Council noticeboards? What do you think about them? We would like your feedback via headonpc@gmail.com

As a result of a recent site visit, Cllr Harvey provided the meeting with a potential location for the Grove Gateway signs to the south of the village.

The next Parish Council meeting will be on Monday 7th March 2022 at 19:30hr at Headon Village Hall, no meeting in February 2022. Why not come along to the next Parish Council meeting and find out about your Parish Council. Most meeting last about one hour.

Plants for Pollinators: February - Crocus & Corkscrew Hazel

A cheerful carpet of crocus lifts the spirits in early spring. There are over 100 varieties and, in addition to providing bright orange pollen for early foraging honeybees, they often provide the first port of call for the emerging Hairy-footed flower bee (one of the first solitary bees to emerge in the spring) and queen bumblebees.

Crocus is a corm whose flower stems remain underground but bear relatively large white, yellow, orange or purple flowers and then become dormant after flowering. I have noticed that honeybees prefer to forage on the purple / blue flowers, probably because their colour vision is primarily at ultraviolet end of the spectrum.

The crocus has been known throughout recorded history, mainly as the source of saffron. Saffron is obtained from the dried stigma of Crocus sativus, an autumn-blooming species. It is valued as a spice and dyestuff, and is one of the most expensive spices in the world.

Hazel catkins are one of the first signs of life at the turn of the year, but in my experience they flower too early in the year for most pollinators to take advantage. As a result they rely mainly on wind for pollination. However, the corkscrew hazel (Corylus 'Contorta') starts to flower later in February as the days start to lengthen. Its highly contorted and twisted branches bear yellow male catkins which are loved by bees (and flower arrangers!).

Corkscrew hazel is also beneficial to other insects including butterflies and moths. It is a caterpillar food plant, has nectar and pollen rich flowers, as well as providing shelter and habitat for birds, and it has edible hazelnuts—if you can get there before the squirrels!

Bassetlaw District Council Consultations Local Plan Addendum & Planning Enforcement

Bassetlaw District Council is currently consulting all interested parties on the addendum to their Local Plan. This document highlights changes to their previously published plan of September 2021. Once finally adopted, the Plan will provide the strategic planning framework for the development of the District up to the 2038. One of the main changes is the reintroduction of the Bevercotes Colliery site for regeneration.

In addition Bassetlaw are reviewing their Planning Enforcement Service and are asking for comments.

The closing date for both responses is the 17th February and the documents can be found at:

Puzzle Corner

There are three people (Alex, Ben and Cody), one of whom is a knight, one a knave, and one a spy. The knight always tells the truth, the knave always lies, and the spy can either lie or tell the truth. Alex says: "Cody is a knave." Ben says: "Alex is a knight." Cody says: "I am the spy." Who is the knight, who the knave, and who the spy?

Answer: Alex is the knight, Ben the spy and Cody the knave.
We know Ben isn't telling the truth because when his statement would be a lie. So that must mean Alex is the knight. Ben, therefore, must be the spy, since the spy sometimes tells the truth; leaving Cody as the knave.
Also can't be the knight, because when his statement would be a lie. So Ben could be either the knight or the knave or the spy. Cody also know Ben isn't telling the truth because if he was, there would be two knights; so Ben could be either the knight or the knave or the spy.
