Farewell to Ben

Parish Councillors say farewell to Cllr. Ben Wielgus (far left) at the December Parish Council Meeting. Ben is leaving the area and has therefore had to step down as Vice Chairman and Councillor for Grove.

Plants for Pollinators: January - Snowdrop

As beekeepers, we are always on the lookout for plants to provide food throughout the year for our bees and other pollinators. Pollinators are vital in enabling our plants to grow, breed and produce the food that we all need. In this series I will take a look at garden plants and trees which can provide useful sources of food throughout the year and hopefully encourage these insects into your garden.

In January most pollinators are still hibernating, however this does not apply to the honey bee. If the weather is warm and dry, they will leave the hive in search of food. The snowdrop (Galanthus) provides early flying bees with a rich source of pollen. Honeybees generally avoid the 'double' flowers, artificially breed with more petals and target the pollen rich stamens of single cultivars. Best planted in clumps they will quickly establish and form a gladdening site in mid winter.

Did you know that extracts from snowdrop are used in the management of Alzheimers's disease?

The defibrillator pads are being replaced. Currently BT do not charge for the electricity used for the defibrillator within the repurposed phone kiosk at Grove and that sometime in the future the Parish Council may have to pay for the electricity.

It is with great sadness that Councillors Wielgus and Askew have resigned from the Parish Council. Councillor Wielgus is moving away from the parish. The Parish Council wish them both best wishes for the future. As a result of the resignation of Councillor Wielgus, the former Vice Chair of the Parish Council, Councillor Harvey proposed Councillor Whelan as the new Vice Chair this was seconded by Councillor Greenhalgh. ## Parish Litter Picking

New litter picking equipment was recently handed over Upton resident Jill Walker (left), funded two thirds by the District Councillor, Ant Coulgate (in centre), and one third by the parish council, represented by the chairman, Julia Harvey (on right). "The parish council would like to express their thanks for the support, and funding, received from our District Councillor", said Councillor Harvey.

Keen litter pickers themselves, both District Councillor Coulgate, and Parish Councillor Harvey are delighted to support efforts to keep our villages, and surrounding areas, tidy and litter free. With high visibility vests, gloves and long reach litter grabs, the whole process should be much safer.

Anyone interested in joining an organised group litter pick should email headonpc@gmail.com, and their details will be passed on to the organisers. Alternatively, if you wish to litter pick, but as an individual, please also contact the same email address and the loan of all necessary equipment will be arranged. This applies to Headon, Grove and Stokeham as well as residents in Upton.

Village Noticeboards

Headon, Upton, Grove and Stokeham Parish Council are delighted to have been able to replace the old, dilapidated notice boards with new, man made wooden boards in all four villages. The new boards are larger, and much more pleasing on the eye. They are situated in the same place as the old boards in all villages except Grove, where the new one is now near the bus stop on the opposite side of the road. Pictured is the notice board at Stokeham, and in the bus shelter at Headon.

The parish council wish to express huge thanks to the people who were involved. They are the clerk, Jim Blaik, Sean Whelan, Pat Thorpe and Trevor Harvey.

Puzzle Corner

Cannibals ambush a safari in the jungle and capture three men. The cannibals give the men a single chance to escape uneaten.

The captives are lined up in order of height, and are tied to stakes. The man in the rear can see the backs of his two friends, the man in the middle can see the back of the man in front, and the man in front cannot see anyone. The cannibals show the men five hats. Three of the hats are black and two of the hats are white.

Blindfolds are then placed over each man's eyes and a hat is placed on each man's head. The two hats left over are hidden. The blindfolds are then removed and it is said to the men that if one of them can guess what colour hat he is wearing they can all leave unharmed.

The man in the rear who can see both of his friends' hats but not his own says, "I don't know". The middle man who can see the hat of the man in front, but not his own says, "I don't know". The front man who cannot see anybody's hat says "I know!"

How did he know the colour of his hat and what colour was it? Answer on the back page

ANSWER: The man in front was wearing a black hat. If the first man had seen two white hats he would know, so therefore he saw either a white and a black hats. If the second man had seen a white hat he would have known that his hat was black from hearing the first man's statement. But as the second man couldn't tell, the man at the front must have a black hat.
